

GREAT WORKS REGIONAL LAND TRUST

2021 DONOR IMPACT REPORT

Letter from the Executive Director

In 2021, we made it through a wonderful year of new growth at GWRLT. We kept our commitment to land protection and management while increasing opportunities for engagement in our conservation community. You made it possible for us to advance our mission with your support!

We grew GWRLT's footprint of permanently protected land to over 7,000 acres. We continued stewarding the lands in the region, protecting significant habitats and providing public access – all thanks to the help of our new Property Steward who came on board in April 2021. And your support helped both children and adults develop a lifelong love of the environment through community engagement programs and educational opportunities.

When you made the decision to financially support Great Works Regional Land Trust, you made an investment in conserving our region's natural, scenic, and cultural resource values. You also helped ensure that the work we are doing now will help protect our natural resources and special places long into the future. The work we do can be complex, but our goal is simple: we want to take care of our land that has given so much to all of us, especially during the past year, and we want to continue to protect it and provide recreation access for generations to come.

When you support GWRLT, you are protecting our land now and well into the future. Your gift creates a legacy of conservation for our beautiful forests and farms. We are incredibly thankful for our volunteers, landowners, conservation partners, and supporters for helping us make achieve significant strides in our conservation goals. Thank you for your support!

We look forward to an exciting 2022 of new opportunities and growth.

OUR VISION IS TO PERMANENTLY PROTECT LAND FOR ALL, FOREVER, WHILE FOSTERING A POSITIVE CONSERVATION ETHIC FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS.

2021 Overview

Your generous contributions as volunteers, members, and donors supported our work in 2021, and as a result, we were able to focus on you, your families, and your neighbors, offering community programs and events to give back and build strong, lasting connections with our conserved lands. Without you, we would be unable to conserve lands, create preserves, or provide these opportunities for our communities.

Conservation & Land Management:

- Protection of 253.3 acres of land, totaling 7,285 acres forever conserved
- Creation of a recreation plan for the conserved 161-acre Old Boston Preserve, set to break ground in 2022 with 2.5 miles of trails including an ADA trail
- Donation of a 24-acre property abutting Payeur Preserve near downtown Ogunquit

Community Engagement:

- 36 guided hikes with 552 participants
- 12 Stories in the Woods outings, for toddlers and families, with six partner libraries
- 8 Migration Morning Bird Walks
- History Hikes series
- Summer Outdoor Yoga series at Beach Plum Farm
- Trail Trek race for National Trails Day
- Plein Air Event with 24 artists
- GWRLT hosted an open house at Beach Plum Farm to celebrate 35 Years of Conservation!

Volunteer Support & Membership:

- 357 of volunteers who gave 2,312 hours of service, supporting land management, education, and development
- 92 new members, bringing membership to 1,656 individuals, families, and businesses

Looking for new ways to get involved? Here are some ways you can help out:

- Become a member or renew your annual membership, and consider becoming a monthly pledge donor!
- Contribute to the Annual Fund.
- Join our Legacy Society by including Great Works in your will or retirement plan.
- Adopt a preserve or check out other opportunities through GWRLT's sponsorship program.
- Donate land to be protected forever.
- Contribute to the GWRLT Stewardship Endowment to ensure a strong future.
- Ask your employer if it has a program to match donations to nonprofits.
- Volunteer for a workday, special event, steering committee, or project at the office.
- Bring your family, friends, neighbors, and colleagues to Great Works' public nature preserves.
- Spread the word through conversations and social media.
