

Douglas Memorial Woods is a 25 acre forested parcel located in the heart of Eliot. There is a 0.8 mile trail that loops through the forested wetland atop bog bridging on the preserve. You can see remnants of old stone walls and a pine tree plantation. Great for young children who can read the Story Walk that changes seasonally thanks to the Eliot Public Library across the road. Terrain: flat. EASY