

Bauneg Beg Conservation Area is an 83 Acre preserve with 2.45 miles of trails through a mixed hardwood and coniferous forest. You can find large granite boulders and ledges aptly named the Devil's Den tucked into the hillside. A clear day offers a view of the Whites Mountains and the Atlantic Ocean. Terrain: mountainous with some steep sections. Linny's Way is steep and requires a brief scramble. MODERATE to DIFFICULT.