

The last remaining salt water farm in Ogunquit, which is now home to community gardens and the office of Great Works Regional Land Trust. Scenic half-mile loop trail through an open meadow with a view of the marshland, the Ogunquit River, the sand dunes, and the Atlant Ocean. Community garden plots are available to rent seasonally. Terrain: flat with one hill down to a lower wetland section. EASY.