

Payeur Preserve is a 35 acre forested wetland area located in the populous town of Ogunquit. Discover a double stone wall on this 1 mile loop trail through an oak pine forest, past wetlands, and vernal pools. Please take note that vernal pools are sensitive habitat and refrain from letting your dog disturb these important habitats by entering them and cleaning up their waste. Terrain: flat. EASY

Data sourced from GWRLT, NWI, and ESRI