

DISCOVER OGUNQUIT'S TRAILS

& FIND A HIDDEN TREASURE! Fun for all ages!

October 24, 25 & 26, 2025

Explore the Great Works Regional Land Trust trails of

Beach Plum Farm, Payeur Preserve and Old Boston Preserve

in search of an elusive, exclusive, glass blown beach plum.

Happy hunting and enjoy the trails!

Did you know.. Beach Plums are indigenous to the North Atlantic coast &

Beach Plum Farm in Ogunquit is one of the last areas they can be found in Maine?

Make sure to register your find! You will automatically be entered in our grand prize drawing for gift cards and prizes worth over $250! (to qualify must be 21+)

Scan below for more info and rules

Since the number of glass beach plums is limited, we ask participants to keep only ONE.

The trails open at 8AM for this event, until dusk. A total of 39 will be hidden over the course of 3 days. Why 39? because that's the number of years that Great Works Regional Land Trust has been doing their GREAT WORK in Southern Maine!

Presented by On the Right Path Productions in Partnership with the Ogunquit Chamber of Commerce and Great Works Regional Land Trust

THANKS TO OUR MANY GENEROUS SPONSORS:

BACKYARD COFFEE & EATERY, CLAY HILL FARM, COLONIAL INN, CRICKETS CORNER, INN SEASONS RESORT, JONATHANS RESTAURANT, JACKIE'S TOO, KIKI'S, MC PERKINS COVE, NORSEMAN, N.E. REAL ESTATE PHOTOGRAPHY, OGUNQUIT CHAMBER, ON THE MAIN, PARTNERS BANK, REVELATIONS GIFT SHOP, RICK & KIKI'S JEWELRY OUTLET, SEA BELL GALLERY, SEA CHAMBERS, SPOILED ROTTEN, STONEHOME JEWELERS, THE WEEKLY SENTINEL, WHISTLING OYSTER

